

Atlanta Metro

The Economic Hub of the South

Equinix Atlanta is home to more than 210 companies in our International Business Exchange™ (IBX™) data centers. That means our customers can access unique digital ecosystems and interconnection-first solutions to deliver superior products and services with the required speed, performance and security to thrive at the digital edge.

Known as the economic center in the Southern U.S., the Atlanta metropolitan area has a population of 5.8 million people and an array of high-powered global businesses.

Atlanta metro facilities

Our facilities offer low-latency network routes to Washington, D.C., Miami and Dallas, as well as a gateway to the Equinix global platform of 220+ data centers in 63 metros, enabling an extended geographic reach well past the region. In addition, connectivity to Google Cloud Platform, Microsoft Azure and Office 365, and Virtela via Equinix Fabric™ allows quick and direct access to cloud services worldwide. Interconnection is vital to success in a digital economy, and Equinix Atlanta delivers it wherever our customers need to be.
